

GEORGIA★READS for AMERICA 250

HONOR THE PAST
READ FOR THE FUTURE

Dive into the 250 Reading List to discover incredible works of literature — texts covering everything from our American Founding to modern voices and movements — that strengthen civic literacy
and spark conversation.

Scan for full book list

america250.georgiareads.org

What is Civic Literacy?

Civic literacy consists of the set of skills necessary for citizens to participate in the kind of self-government promised by our American experiment. It involves learning about our nation's history, recognizing the rights and responsibilities we share, and engaging thoughtfully in the conversations that shape our future. By studying America's story, we can promote genuine patriotism and learn how to safeguard the freedoms that sustain our communities.

exploregeorgia.org/ga250