

GEORGIA READS for AMERICA 250

HONOR THE PAST. READ FOR THE FUTURE.

Read What Built Georgia Shape What Comes Next

Georgia's libraries invite you to take part in Georgia Reads for America250 — a statewide call to rediscover the texts that sparked a revolution, defined our democracy, and still challenge us today.

Explore the 250 Reading List: the foundational works, enduring ideas, and powerful voices that shaped Georgia's past and point us toward a brighter future. Every book you open strengthens your understanding of the rights, responsibilities, and values that tie us together.

This isn't just reading. It's participation. It's citizenship. It's your chance to help write Georgia's next chapter.

Start the journey at your local library  and read forward.

Join Georgia in reading toward a stronger, smarter future.

america250.georgiareads.org